

QUEENSLAND McCUTCHEONS

Each year in each State and Nationally the McCutcheons recognise those that have accumulated the most Master Points at their grade level, and this year Noosa Bridge Club had an exceptional year.

Michael Huddart was first in Regional Master category and third nationally, and was awarded a James O'Sullivan Award for being first. Also Elizabeth Van Vugt was 2nd. and Julie Scott was 3rd in the Bronze State Master category (9th and 14th Nationally). Julia Caldwell was 3rd in the Local Master category (6th Nationally), David Reid 4th in Graduate Master category (11th Nationally) and Kerry Rutter was 3rd and Joanne McCarthy was 4th in the Nil Master category (11th and 12th Nationally).

A full list of Noosa Club Members who came in the top 20 in their category is set out below.
